THURSDAY 9 MAY 2019

7.30pm

In conjunction with the UJIA, Ealing Synagogue presents this award-winning Israeli theatrical production.

How would you raise your child, if you knew that one day their turn will come to hold a rifle?

KNOCK KNOCK describes what it's like to be a parent in the shadow of armed conflict.

The play follows the journey of Ilana, a single mother whose job as an Israeli Officer of Casualty Notifications is to knock on the door of families whose sons or daughters have been lost in war.

Her conflict between motherhood and duty as citizen reaches a deafening climax when her only son chooses to serve on the front line of battle.

Played entirely by Niv Petel, this immersive physical mono-drama cuts through the thick curtain of politics to tell a story about parenthood, friendship, love and sacrifice.

Q&A after the play with Niv Petel.

Tickets: £15.00

Ealing Synagogue Centenary 2019

Memories of 100 Years

Ealing Synagogue is now in its Centenary year and we have some events planned to celebrate this special milestone, culminating in a dinner on Sunday 10 November 2019.

A Commemorative Album is being produced to coincide with the Centenary and we are asking for your contributions. We would love to hear your memories and anecdotes of Ealing Synagogue – all memories are special. We would also like any information on the families who donated Sifrei Torah, the stained-glass windows, Sefer Torah covers and silverware, etc. Please contact Kate Hirst or complete the form on the back of this leaflet and a member of the Album Committee will be in touch with you. Also, if you have any photographs that you can lend us, that would be great. We will take special care of them and they will be returned to you. Thank you.

A mystery picture. This picture from our shul collection shows Michael Levy and possibly Chief Rabbi Israel Brodie with a young lady curtsying before Princess Margaret. Nobody can recall such an occasion which was probably in the fifties. Can you?
