EALING CARES FOOD BANKS

The Ealing Cares Committee would like to contribute to one of the Ealing food banks that are mainly run by the churches. A box will be left in the shed at the entrance to the shul for the next couple of weeks and people are invited to donate non-perishable items when they come either to the Community Lunch, Sunday morning services or on Tuesdays and Thursdays when the shul is open (not including Shabbat!). The items required are tins of food, dried pasta, tea bags, pasta sauces, sugar, tinned baby foods and toiletries. Thanking you in advance for your donations.

Yerucham Early Childhood Centre Appeal

Help give the children of the Negev a better start in life

In Israel's remote desert town of Yerucham, more than 1,300 'at risk' babies and children desperately need support and care. Help us build an Early Childhood Centre to provide a safe place for them to play, learn and grow.
