EALING SYNAGOGUE CENTENARY
SUNDAY 10 NOVEMBER 2019

Nearly 200 members, former members and the generation who grew up in Ealing, attended a dinner at the Holiday Inn-Brentford Lock. Trevor Asserson, a grandson of one of the founders, David Assersohn, came from Israel to share memories of his grandfather. The Chief Rabbi spoke of Ealing's characteristics as a caring community. He invested long-serving Warden, Brian Robinson, as Elder of the Synagogue. Michael Goldstein, President of the United Synagogue, described the high regard in which Ealing is held within the United Synagogue. Before leaving, each guest was presented with a personalised album consisting of one hundred years of memorabilia in the life of the community. Ealing's true grit will keep it going, despite being outside the North West London bubble, for many a year to come. Dawn Shestopal

Special Thanks To:

Edward Cohen for being the MC on the night. He kept the evening moving and entertaining with his jokes!

David Kochan for his advice on the menu. The food was amazing.

Nigel Bewley for the photography. It was like trying to catch cats—people were moving around all the time, but he did a great job. More photos to come.

Dear Dawn and Michael,

As President of the Board of Deputies of British Jews, it gives me immense pleasure to wish a hearty Mazal Tov to Ealing Synagogue on its centenary anniversary.

Although you may be a small community, you are renowned for your warmth, closeness and care for each other notwithstanding the religious, cultural and social activities enjoyed by the community.

Led so admirably by Rabbi Hershi and Rebbetsin Zelda Vogel, together with the co-chairs Dawn and Michael and the Synagogue Council, Ealing United Synagogue continues to flourish and long may it do so.

With warmest wishes

Marie.
